PATRIOTISM
Born through the blood of my ancestors;
Born for the hope of my sucessors;

You rose to the rage of my brothers;
O Great Mother, the Nation Herself,
You rose through the darkness to bring light;
You broke through the binds to bring smiles;
They call You Freedom;

In some places in India, Coke and Pepsi are used as pesticides
In the Chattisgarh state of India, which is one of the world's largest rice-producing areas, farmers began to spray their fields with Coke and Pepsi products, since it was cheaper than traditional pesticides and seemed to work just as well.
On looking more closely at this method, it's thought that the sweet syrups attract ants to the field, which eat the eggs and larva of insects that commonly destroy crops.
