Alumni Interaction:

The Department of Management Science had an Alumni Interaction via Google meet on the topic “Building the Skillsets” for the final year students on 10.07.2021 with Ms. Priyanka Banu, Senior Process Associate, TCS, Bangalore and Mr. Vishnu M, Sales Manager, IDFC First Bank, Bangalore. Both were Alumni of Sri Krishna College Arts and Science College. It was an eye-opening session to the students about what needs to be done before completing the Under Graduation and how to crack interviews. They enlightened the students with their knowledge and experience on corporate culture. Their experience and the real time crisis they faced motivated students to work hard for a better future. The session was well received by our students.

Variable declaration	{ int a = 10;
Body	printf("%d" , a);
Return	return 0;

❖ C is a procedural programming language.
❖ It was initially developed by Dennis Ritchie in the year 1972.
❖ It was mainly developed as a system programming language to write an operating system.
❖ The main features of the C language include low-level memory access, a simple set of keywords, and a clean style, these features make C language suitable for system programming's like an operating system or compiler development.
❖ Many later languages have borrowed syntax/features directly or indirectly from the C language.
❖ Like syntax of Java, PHP, JavaScript, and many other languages are mainly based on the C language.

Online C Compiler IDE

```
