Any other matter:

In case of any minor discrepancy in syllabi/ regulations or correction in syllabi for all UG / PG programmes for the academic year 2023-2024 recommended by the chairman of BOS, the chairman of Academic Council can make such amendments subject to the approval in the subsequent Academic Council meetings.

General Suggestions:

- Dr. Gayathri Harish, Curriculum Development Cell, Logistics Sector Skill Council, advocated that with the help of Public Administration Department, the coaching can be given for the UG students for preparing them for competitive exams.
- Dr. Rupa Gunaseelan suggested having multi-disciplinary or interdisciplinary researches amongst the departments. Also, she added regional aspects can be adopted as research problems in order to optimize the interaction between the society and institution.
- Dr. S. Chitra, University Representative appreciated the infrastructure of the College and mentioned that SKASC has University standards in every aspects. She recommended having MoUs with “Naan Mudhalvan” Scheme to work in coordination with the public. Also she proposed to organize more International conferences, workshops and seminars. She added that Faculty Awards can be planned under various criteria.
- Mr. Mahesh Kumar applauded the leadership of the Chairperson and approved that the faculty team works in unison because of the leadership. He also advised to counsel the students to undertake research and project works in association with the social needs.
- Dr. M. Kunthavi Devi, Gynecologist, Sree Abirami Hospitals, appreciated the change which are made in the new curriculum structure.
