

Smt. S. Malarvizhi, M.Sc., M.Phil., currently serves as the Chairperson and Managing Trustee of VLB Trust. She is a trailblazer in the field of Higher Education and development, fostering 21st century methodologies. She manages two autonomous engineering colleges, namely Sri Krishna College of Engineering and Technology and Sri Krishna College of Technology, along with two arts and science colleges, Sri Krishna Arts and Science College (Autonomous) and Sri Krishna Adithya College of Arts and Science. Additionally, she oversees one Government aided polytechnic, Sri Krishna Polytechnic College. Together, these institutions provide quality education to over 23,000 students annually.

The colleges have achieved high rankings in NIRF, consistently securing positions within the Top 100. She has also established an IT company, Sri Krishna I-Tech Solutions Pvt. Ltd, to provide IT and IT-enabled services. In addition, she holds Directorship positions in various companies, including those in the Agro Farm, Property Holding, and Software Technology sector.

As a trustee, she is associated with Avinashilingam Trust – Institute of Higher Education and Home Science for Women, Uyir – A Social Service Organization for Road safety, Santhalinga Adigalar Hospital Trust, and Global Kongu Foundation – For Youth Empowerment.

Smt. S. Malarvizhi is associated with many professional associations and holds high positions. She serves as the Senior Vice President of Educational Promotion Society of India, New Delhi, and is a current Syndicate Member of Anna University, Chennai. In recognition of her dedicated service to society, ASSOCHAM New Delhi has honored her with a Lifetime Achievement Award, and the Times of India Group has conferred upon her the EDUICON Award.

Mr. K. Adithya, B.E., MOB (AUS) is the Trustee and Secretary of VLB Trust. The trust runs five educational institutions including Two engineering colleges, two Arts and Science Colleges and a Polytechnic College. He is a director in many IT companies including Sri Krishna i-Tech Management Solution Pvt. Ltd. He is also a director in many property holdings and Agro farms. Shri.K. Adithya is a leading industrialist, established many companies in UAE, Omen and Qatar. He is an exporter of domestic pump sets to gulf region.

Shri K. Adithya has also made his mark in the food industry by promoting ready mix spices globally and by opening an international coffee shop at Chennai. He is also running a distributorship for German readymade kitchens in India.

Mr. E. K. Kumaresan, B.A., B.L., Trustee and Advocate. He is an additional Advocate General for the State of Meghalaya. He has a three decade of career in legal profession. He has vast experience in handling diverse cases ranging from criminal trails to constitutional matters. He is instrumental in securing atleast 80 reported judgements contributing significantly to the evolution of legal doctrines. His contribution beyond the court room showcasing his commitment to environmental restoration, educational outreach and security enhancement. He has delivered many lectures to judges on the topic enhancing legal security. He has practiced before many prominent courts including Supreme court of India, Madras High Court and other courts. He is officially enlisted on panels including AAG in Supreme Court of India, Standing council in Madras High Court, National Green Tribunal, Kerala debt recovery tribunal etc.