About Dr. Manoj Arora

Dr. Manoj Arora holds a doctorate from Swansea University, UK, and completed a post-doctoral fellowship on a NASA-sponsored project at Syracuse University, USA. He served in Civil Engineering at IIT Roorkee from 1988 to 2018, and from July 2013 to October 2018 was on lien to lead Punjab Engineering College, Chandigarh, as Director (Vice-Chancellor). He later served as Vice-Chancellor of BML Munjal University (Nov 2018–Sept 2022) and SRM University–AP (Sept 2022–Sept 2025).

With over 37 years of academic experience, his work spans teaching, research supervision, academic planning and the creation of new schools, centres and laboratories. He has led 42 sponsored research and consultancy projects with funding exceeding INR 90 million and established a centre and a research chair with an endowment of INR 125 million. His publications include 2 books, 19 book chapters and over 250 research papers in international and national journals and conferences. He has guided 26 Ph.D. scholars and supervised 56 master's dissertations. His Google Scholar profile records 9,429 citations, an h-index of 43 and an i10-index of 89.

His distinctions include the Bhaskar Award (2023) of the Indian Society of Remote Sensing, the Outstanding Teacher Award at IIT Roorkee (2006 and 2010), the Commonwealth Scholarship, the DST Young Scientist Award and the AICTE Young Teacher Career Award. He is a Fellow of the Indian National Academy of Engineering and the Institution of Engineers, and a member of several professional bodies. He has held administrative roles at IIT Roorkee, served on expert committees of national agencies such as the IITs, DRDO, UPSC, CSIR, UGC, AICTE and DST, and currently serves on the AICTE PG Board and the Governing Council of the Association of Indian Universities, while also chairing NBA, AICTE and UGC visiting teams.
